Sub: International Distance Learning (DL) course in "Hydrology - Basic Hydrologic Sciences for the Asian Regional (2019)" being organized by the National Water Academy (NWA) in association with World Meteorological Organization (WMO)

Sir / Madam,

As you may be aware that NWA is a Regional Training Centre of WMO and it conducts Distance Learning (DL) programs in association with WMO.

International Distance Learning (DL) course in "Hydrology - Basic Hydrologic Sciences for the Asian Regional (2019)" is scheduled during 17 June 2019 -02 August 2019. This DL program is intended to benefit the officers (hydrologists/meteorologists) in the rank of AE/AEE/EE or equivalent, working in State and Central Govt. agencies, Public Sector Undertakings; Private Sector; Media; Academicians; & NGOs involved in the Water Resources Development and Management. There is no fee for this program. The bulletin giving details of the DL program is attached. The detailed information about this program is also available in our website <http://nwa.mah.nic.in> under the link 'upcoming events'.

The DL program in Hydrology is designed to meet the needs of officials, who work with hydrologic data, particularly in the areas of flood forecasting and design flood analysis etc. The program is completely on-line which do not require attending classroom sessions at NWA. The program format consists of training material in the form of on-line modules which are downloadable; quizzes; Webinar; on-line assignments etc. During the program the expert faculty will be available for on-line and off-line interactions & discussions with the participants.

Your organization may like to take benefit of this DL Program and nominate suitable officers of the profile indicated above. Please send the nominations to NWA by e-mail/fax/ post latest by 14th May 2019. The accepted participants will be provided with an enrollment key by 05 June 2019 to enable them to login on to the program website. The list of the accepted nominations will be also be displayed in NWA's website on 05 June 2019. The nominated officers have to attend this program from their existing place of duty and they are not required to come to NWA for the same.

Yours Sincerely,
